Waterfall Lodge

The prestigious Manor House Hotel and Golf Club, voted one of the best 50 stay-and-play resorts in Britain, has devised an imaginative new facility for enthusiasts who come to play the championship course on the outskirts of Castle Combe, Wiltshire's most famous medieval town.

With four twin bedrooms, two showers and a lounge complete with television and DVD, the concept essentially follows the time-honoured "dormy house" principle in that it allows players to reside close enough to the course and play as much golf as possible during their stay.

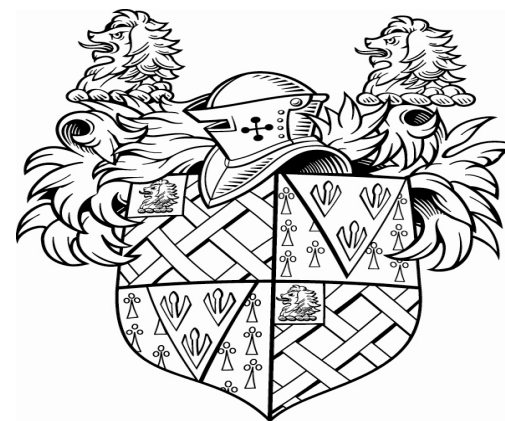

Rates: April-December 2011

£109 per person Sunday to Thursday

£119 per person Friday and Saturday

Inclusive of dinner in the Clubhouse, Bed and Breakfast, use of the driving range and 36 holes, based on a minimum of four sharing.
